REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

1972

Having assumed the office of the Superintendency in Lawrence on October 1, 1972, it is difficult to personally report on events, most of which occurred during that year before my having assumed that office. Nevertheless, the following represents an attempt to summarize the most salient achievements or actions which took place during 1972 and such listing is in chronological order.

The election of new School Committee Members:

Mr. Stephen Zanni, Mrs. Margaret O'Connor,
Mayor John J. Buckley.

Communication received from the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools dated December 16, 1971 which stated:

"This communication should serve as further notice that accreditation beyond 1974 is in jeopardy unless there is a community commitment in the immediate months ahead to provide adequate school facilities for secondary education."

The establishment of a special commission for the purpose of studying the feasibility of transferring the maintenance of school buildings from the Department of Public Property and Parks to the School Department.

The appearance of representatives from the State Department of Education who presented to the School Committee their evaluation of Lawrence's progress in connection with the 1970 Survey of Lawrence - A View to the 70's.

It was urged by the representatives from the State Department that the committee pursue the Department's recommendations as soon as possible.

The formation of a comprehensive Athletic Policy.

The approval of the School Committee of the establishment of a pre-school class for the emotionally disturbed (autistic) which was to begin in September of 1972.

The termination of the contract of the Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Fritz Lindquist.

The approval by the School Committee of a plan for the extended school day for the next school year at Lawrence High School.

The establishment of one-half day per month Teacher Workshops and In-Service Programs, Grades Kindergarten-8.

The Leahy School Improvement Plan.

The State approved program for children with Learning Disabilities.

A summer program for the mentally retarded.

Contributions of the School Community Council such as the report "Children with learning disabilities."

The establishment of guidelines for the selection of varsity coaches.

The election of a Health Coordinator.

The establishment of a summer program for exceptional children and children with learning disabilities.

The approval of a NABS Career Exploration Program.

The leasing of the Assumption and St. Patrick's Schools.

The appointment of Mr. James A. Griffin as Acting Superintendent of Schools.

The appointment of Miss Margaret M. Horner as Submaster at Lawrence High School.

The establishment of a Summer In-Service Workshop for personnel employed under Title VII funds.

The establishment of the positions of Adjustment Counselors.

The appointment of Mr. Maurice F. Smith as Superintendent of Schools.

The establishment of a Hot Lunch Program for the elementary and junior high schools.

The retirement of Mr. James A. Griffin, Acting Superintendent of Schools.

The establishment of goals for the Kindergarten Program in the Lawrence Public Schools.

The assumption of duties by Superintendent Maurice F. Smith on October 1, 1972.

The acceptance of a format by the School Committee for job descriptions and an emphasis given to the development of job descriptions for administrative positions in the school system.

Approval of a job description for the following positions:

Assistant Superintendent of Schools

Department Head - Lawrence High School

The receiving of a Progress Report on the implementation of a Transitional Bilingual Program.

The adoption of regulations for the certification of guidance counselors and guidance directors as approved by the Massachusetts Board of Education on June 7, 1972.

The appointment of lunchroom aides in order to relieve elementary teachers at lunch time.
